HOLLOWAY'S PILLS have effectually cured a OLLOWAY'S PILLS have effectually cured a layer complaint of a most hopeless nature. Mr. Thomas Clark, of Lake George, New South Wales, was seriously afflicted for years with a Liver Complaint. His medical attendants, after trying all their saill, candidly gave their opinion that his case was happless. In this cithetion, and when expecting that every day would terminate his earthly career, a friese recommended him to try HOLLOWAY'S TILLS, assuring him that he knew a person who was cured by their of that complaint. He adopted the advice, and flowed procely frield from taking them, and was in a short time perfectly restored to health. Sold by all venders of medicine in the United States, in pots and loves at 375 cents, 575 cents, and $1.50 cach; and whitesaic by the principal drug stores in the United States, and by Messex. Posterity, Native Land,—these all teach us not brindly to-warship, but only to bonor the past, to study the lessons of experience to seat the high connects of mon-in his great associations, as these occuses shave been developed in constitutions, in laws, in maxime, in translous, in great up measures, and justifies the next generation in everying away their work as remoselessly as they are disposed to sweep away the work of their predecessors. [Great cheering.]

Now here sgain, sit, the error is one of exaggeration only. Young America is a very housest fellow—he means well, but like other young folks he is sometimes a little too much in a hurry. [Laughter and cheers.] He needs the early occasionally, as we old ones perhaps still more frequently need the sport [Laughter]. There is a principle of progress in the human mind—in all the works of men who described in the human mind—in all the works of men who described in situations—in art, literature and science—and most especially in all new countries, where it coast, from the nature of the case, be the leading and governing penticular to the control of the case. It is institutions, with the ancient world, and doubt hits: the daily newspapers smoking every menting from a hundred presses, with a strip of hierogly phies on the side of an obelisk, preplexing the world with its dublous in part, and even that found out within the last thirty years—the ocean stranger with the row galay creeping timidy round the shore—the railways in the United States alone, without mentioning those of Europe, with those famous Kenusa paved roads the Aopian and Flamman way, to which the orator aliaded—waken our ralways exceed tenfold in excentric representative republican confederacy, and alone and the press from the store of communication; the printing press driven by steam, with the acarbe' a tors me pen, the electric telegraph, with the said coach, the pest herse, the podestrian common and above and a representative republican confederacy, extending ever a continent with a federal despaism building a patage on the neck of a people, or a storny Greetian democracy, subsisting its citizens by public largess, all labor service, our activities the press of the world of the federal day, we find that they tranged for conservation, and that from pressing its allies, and repulse an may be carried a great deal too har, but it is not merely an increte feeling of the human hear, but a direct logical consequence of the physicial may surface to constitution which our Creator has given in. (Cheers) The sucred to of family which reaching backward and forward, think the generality is of men together, and draws out the plaintive masks of our being from the second alternation of cradic and grave—the back and white keys of life a harpsichord—lensation]—the magical power of language, which puts sport in communion with apprent in distant periods and climas, the grand sympathies of country which lead the Go-sk of the present day to take of the vectory which her gainst over the barbarians at Marath had choose,—the mystic bases of race, wowen tay book in the dark chambers of the past, and which after the vice-increase of the past, and which after the vice-increase which carry voluntes of celturies, wraps by great nations in its broad manife—cheers—tower significant expressions which carry voluntes of meaning in a word.—Foretather, Parcal, Chiel, Forlerity, Native Land,—there all teach us not buildly to. By the arrival of excursion trains from Roche ter and the West, and the inpouring of the people from the rural districts, the pleasant town of Medina was at an early hour, on the morning of the 4th, crowded to excess. The meeting at the grove was opened by prayer from Rev. Mr. Smith: after which G. W. Clark, Esq. of Roches-ter, sing a soul-stirring song. Reading of the Declarater, sing a soil-stirring song. Reading of the Declaration by Mr. Oliver Morehouse, of Aibion. Mr. tidmags, teng loadly called for, now made as appearance on the stand. He began by referring to circumstances under which the Declaration of Independence was put lorth, as of deep and solemn interest. It was no argument, —these were seffected in truths. The equality of men, the brotherhood of the race—this was the corner atons of our Republic. It is right to celebrate this day. We come tocome to repeat the solemn declaration, and pieces our gether to repeat the solemn declaration, and piecge ourselves mess to the maintenance of its principles [Cheers] if there is a man here who denies these truths he has no right to participate in the feativities of this day. We come to gether holding in veneration this great fact of the loais hable right of all men to liberty. [Approxed] It is with sorrow that we are constrained to acknowledge that constitutions, in laws, in maxima, in transitions, in great undebtoted principles and right and arrong, which have seen san those by the general conceant of those who have gone before us; thus tracing in human institutions some faint reflection of that Divine wisdom which facilitions some faint infection of the Divine wisdom which facilitions some faint tunfolds durely six weens ago in the forest, on the pattern of the loaf which was bathed in the devisior Paradise in the norming of creation. [Linuxusance cheers]

These feelings, I say, bir, are just and natural. The principles which prompts them lies ecep in our nature; it gives built to the devised charities of life, and it fortifies some of the sternest virtues. [Theory But these principles and feeling are not the whose of our nature. They are a portion only of three as an injurie which belong to us as med, as patriots, as Christians. We do not err when we cherish them, but when we cherish and act on them excusive ly, forgetting that there is another class or feelings and is make right of all men to liberty. [Approxim] it is with sorrow that we are constrained to acanomicate that his Government virtually defines these frame, and is to-day rooting man of his rights. At the period of the adoption of the Censtitution, no man supposed that we were to participate in the cames of slavery. It was left to the Slave States to maintain their clavery if they pleased, and soon after this the slave power grasped at the Government. In slunding to the Compromise Measures of 1850, Mr. Gidenings and: Whigs and Democrats, you stand before the world the advocates of slavery and oppression. You are pleaged to support the slave trade in the District of Commina. I wome arouse you by the enormity of this Compromise. You gentlemen, have resolved that we shall not agitate this que suon; why, you are now violating that the you have come up here to agitate, to hear an agit at rife; you have come up here to agitate, to hear an agit at rife; will you sustain these measures! At Hingham, Mass, at 12 o'clock on Monday, a very serious accident occurred. A number of persons were engaged in discharging a camoon, and Mr. Thomas Biossom and Mr. Eben Whitten were ramming home the charge, when a premature explesion occurred. Both Mr. Biossom's hands were block of, his jaw broken in two places and his che k bone badly injured. It is the opinion of the physicians that he cannot survive. Mr. Whitten had one had blown off, but was not otherwise seriously injured. Mr. Biossom is the senior publisher of the Hingham Patriot, and the and occurrence caused a general feeling of sorrow and regret throughout the town.
